

Acceptable Use Policy

Last Updated: 15 October 2023

Introduction

This Acceptable Use Policy ("Policy") outlines the rules and guidelines for using UseMemo ("the App"). By using the App, you agree to comply with this Policy.

Content Guidelines

Prohibited Content

The following types of content are strictly prohibited:

1. Copyrighted material for which you do not hold the rights or have explicit permission from the rights holder.
2. Offensive or harmful material, including but not limited to hate speech, violence, or explicit content.
3. Spam or promotional material.
4. Content that violates any local, state, or federal law.

User Responsibility

Users are solely responsible for ensuring the content they upload complies with this Policy and applicable laws.

Enforcement Measures

Failure to adhere to these guidelines may result in various enforcement actions, at our discretion, such as:

1. A formal warning.
2. Temporary suspension of your account.
3. Permanent termination of your account.
4. Removal from the App (where technically feasible).

Limitation on Content Removal Due to Encryption

Please note that all content uploaded to UseMemo is encrypted in a manner that renders us technically unable to remove or alter individual pieces of content. Therefore, while we can take action on user accounts, the specific content may not be removable. By using this service, you acknowledge and agree to this limitation.

Reporting Violations

If you encounter content or user behavior that you believe violates this Acceptable Use Policy, please report it to us for investigation at support@usememo.ai

Changes to This Acceptable Use Policy

We reserve the right to update or amend this Acceptable Use Policy at any time. Your continued use of the App signifies your acceptance of any changes made to this Policy.
